ANNUAL MEETING.

THE TENTH ANNUAL MEETING of the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons was held at the Home, First month 8th, 1874, the President in the chair.

The Annual Report of the Board of Managers and that of the Treasurer were read, and on motion referred to the new Board for publication.

TENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

In presenting the Tenth Annual Report of the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons, the Managers thankfully acknowledge the blessings which, in the good providence of God, have been bestowed upon us during the past year.

The number of inmates recorded upon our books at the date of the last report was fifty-five. Since that time seventeen have been received. During the year, the very unusual number of thirteen have been removed by death, as follows:

RACHEL BRISTER, ...	deceased	1st mo. 4th,	aged	77
ABIGAIL BROWN, ...	"	1st mo. 8th,	"	83
PRISCILLA REED, ...	"	1st mo. 21st,	"	91
HANNAH MARCUS, ...	"	3d mo. 14th,	"	73
NANCY HORACE, ...	"	3d mo. 15th,	"	102
HARRIET TOOGOOD, ...	"	4th mo. 2d,	"	72
CHRISTIANA ALLSTON, . .	"	5th mo. 1st,	"	77
ESTHER BECKET, ...	"	7th mo. 25th,	"	92
PRISCILLA PURDY, ...	"	7th mo. 27th,	"	74
RACHEL RICHARDSON, . . .	"	8th mo. 18th,	"	93
FANNY BLUNT, , ...	"	8th mo. 30th,	"	75
SARAH BOGGS, ...	"	9th mo. 5th,	"	81
MARY ANN BROWN, ...	"	11th mo. 8th,	"	107

It will be seen that all of the above had passed the three score and ten years usually allotted to man. Several of them had attained to a truly patriarchal age, and one of them could, no doubt go back in her recollections of childhood to a period when the British Crown still maintained its sovereignty over what is now the United States. We fear that many of them, as they recalled the experiences of a chequered life, must, like Jacob of old, have seen more of evil than of good. And yet they had been the witnesses of a peculiar and crowning mercy to their own race. From the servitude, of which several of them had a personal knowledge, God had led this people through the fearful waters of a civil war into a land of freedom. From out the quiet retreat which had been furnished to these aged pensioners, they could look upon the disenthrallment of their own kindred and nation; and their last days were, no doubt, gladdened by the thought that the bitter wrongs they had suffered were forever past. In the hospitality and comfort afforded to their declining years, they could forget all but the tender mercy and goodness of Our Father in Heaven.

The total number of inmates received by us to the beginning of the year 1874 has been ninety-four; from which number thirty-five have been taken away, in the more than nine years of the history of the Home, leaving our present number fifty-nine. We ascribe the increased mortality of the past two years to natural causes, growing out of the increased age of those under our care. Almost all of our inmates come to us at such an advanced period of life, and with such wornout frames, that we cannot wonder at their speedy release.

Frequent allusions have been made in our reports to the ability and efficiency of our Matron. The trying circumstances attendant upon a year of sickness have made us renewedly sensible of her kind and watchful care over those under her charge. The infirmities of age and the great variety of dispositions demand unusual tact and patience. In adapting herself to the varied duties and responsibilities incident to the position of Matron, we believe she is aware of her own insufficiency of these things, and that she has found the help always granted to those who commit their burthens to the care of a loving and faithful God.

We are glad to be able to say that many of our inmates are not only uniformly cheerful, but industrious and helpful. They seem to enjoy the pleasant outlook from the windows and porch of the Home, and, when the season and their own health admit of it, find great comfort in their little walks in the garden attached to our building. The birds and flowers cheer them much, and in a position from which care and anxiety are very much excluded, they pass their last days in quiet serenity.

In the monthly reports of our valued Matron, mention is made of the interesting and yet painful scenes connected with the last illness and death of some of those who have passed away. We append a few extracts.

Eighth mo. 13th, 1873. "The past month has been one of severe trial to our feeble and infirm family. Three of our number have gone from us; others are lying quite sick. Esther Becket, one of those recently deceased, was an inmate of the Home about eight years, was eighty-three years old when she came to us. She was then a strong, able-bodied woman—strong also in character. She knew no rule but her own will, which she said she brought with her. For the past four months she was confined to her own room, most of the time a great sufferer from oppression, not being able to lie down. The close of her life was peaceful and happy. She expressed regret at having said many unkind things to those about her; she now loved every one, and was glad to hear that I have nothing in my heart against her. Nancy Horace fell in a paralytic stroke on First-day morning, and was speechless until the following Seventh-day, when she closed a peaceful life at the advanced age of one hnndred and two years."

Ninth mo. 10th. "The home has again lost three of its inmates. We miss them much, and are sorry to part with them. Rachel Richardson, a tender mother and sweet-spirited woman, one who had love to God and all mankind, was one of them. She suffered much, but endured all with great patience, and was released on the 18th ult., aged about ninety-three years. Fanny Blunt passed quietly away on the 31st ult., aged about seventy-five. She had been a great sufferer for many years. The latter part of the time she bore her afflictions with Christian fortitude. Sarah Boggs died Ninth mo. 5th, aged eighty-one. She was one of the early inmates at the Front Street Home, and often declared that she was on the watch tower and ready for the summons."

Eleventh mo. 12th, 1873. "We are thankful to be able to report that now, on the approach of winter, our family is in comfortable health. No one is entirely confined to bed, although we have the lame and the blind, who are much debilitated. During the past month we have lost a dear old woman, the first one admitted after our removal to the new building Mary Ann Brown died at the advanced age of one hundred and seven years. She went down to her grave, a pattern of piety, fully prepared, as we believe, for the kingdom."

From these brief extracts some faint idea may be gathered of the sadder incidents in the daily life of our home. There are not wanting others of a more cheerful character. Weekly religious services are held, at which most of our inmates are able to attend. The visits of the Committee of Lady Managers are always looked forward to with interest. On Thanksgiving day and on Christmas, dinners were provided for them through the kind liberality of friends. For a list of the many benefactions conferred upon the Home, independently of many subscriptions, we gratefully refer to the end of the report.

The most eventful circumstance in connection with the Home during the past year was the death of our friend and co-laborer, Stephen Smith, the first Vice-President of the institution. He has from its origin given it his warm sympathy and support. It is to his wise liberality that we owe the present noble building occupied by the Home, and we cannot but rejoice in the thought that he was able while yet alive to see the fruits of his beneficence. Since it was erected a week has rarely passed, while his health permitted, that he did not visit it. He manifested a constant and unfailing interest in all its affairs, and spared no pains to make it worthy of its object. Not satisfied with the gifts so liberally bestowed, he has by will devised to us a handsome sum. It will, however, be nearly two years before we shall begin to reap the results of this legacy. His death occurred on the 14th of Eleventh month, 1873, after an illness of some months' duration. His name and that of his wife, who yet survives, will go down to future generations, associated with an humble yet most praiseworthy charity.

As in the past, so in the future, we shall have to rely upon the contributions of the benevolent for the maintenance of the Home; as we have already said above, we shall receive no benefit from the bequest for a long time. When we have it, there will still be need for a large yearly subscription.

To Dr. Rosell, Dr. Balfour, and many other friends whom we cannot name separately, the Home is under obligations for disinterested kindness and attention.

We have received from the executors of Jesse George a legacy of eight hundred dollars during the past year.

Signed, on behalf the Board,

DILLWYN PARRISH,
Chairman.

Charles W. Peirce,
Secretary.

ANNUAL MEETING.

Interesting remarks were made by Bishop Campbell, Samuel R. Shipley, Theodore Gould, Geo. W. Goines, W. H. Hunter, and others.

Quite an animated discussion took place upon the responsibilities of the colored people in connection with the Home.

On motion it was recommended that the Managers should take measures to present to the various colored churches in our city the larger and continuous needs of this Institution.

Charles W. Peirce, William Still, George W. Hancock, Margaret A. Boling, and Ann Jess were appointed a committee on nominations, who subsequently presented the list of Officers and Managers, printed on page 3, who, on motion were declared elected to the several positions. Adjourned.

MARCELLUS BALDERSTON,
Secretary.

NOTE.—Contributions in goods may be left at the store of Laing & Maginnis, 30 North Third Street, or at the Home.

RESOLUTIONS,

PASSED AT A MEETING OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS, 1st MO. 7, 1874.

"WHEREAS, Our friend and associate, STEPHEN SMITH, has been removed from us by death, we, the surviving Managers of the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons, desire to record our sense of the loss thus sustained; therefore,

"Resolved, That in the death of STEPHEN SMITH the colored people of Philadelphia have been deprived of a life long friend, one who was zealous and earnest in promoting the welfare of his race, and who was ever ready to lend a helping hand to those less favored than himself.

"Resolved, That in the loss of its Vice-President, the Home for Aged and Infirm Colored Persons will long miss one who was its earnest and sympathising friend; who almost from its foundation evinced his warm interest not only by his frequent contributions, but by a faithful performance of his duties as an officer thereof.

"Resolved, That as a wise steward of the gifts committed to him, our late friend was able to see the results of a noble benefaction, bestowed while he was yet alive, in the building up of a most useful charity.

"Resolved, That in the munificent provision made by his will for the maintenance and support of the Home, we recognize the same solicitude and beneficence in its behalf which characterised our friend during life.

"On behalf of the Board,

"DILLWYN PARRISH,
President.

"CHAS. W. PEIRCE,
Secretary."

The sick or infirm will be accommodated with meals in their own rooms, but all others will be expected to take them at the general table.

RULE 17.

It will be expected that all who are capable will make their own beds, and sweep their rooms, early every morning; such as are not will have it done for them.

RULE 18.
